Fourth of July BBQ:

Our annual 4th of July festivities was a delight to watch with Gerd and Lulu's shiny, bright blue Thunderbird leading the parade down to the community center. What a beauty!

Greg Becker's John Deer tractor got a good workout and came alive just in time to make it as well!!

Our fearless judges; Cindy Chew and her Posse.

The PV Junior Drill team kicked off the events with their amazing show. Lots of excitement as Caroline Litchfield was riding Comet for the very first time. He was busy with his own show, showing off his fast moves around the barrels and other horses as we all held our breath and prayed Caroline wouldn't fall off. I was confused for a moment and thought they were going for some kind of PBR show...She's one tough cookie!

Immediately following the show we got treated to our new Star Miss Brooklyn Farrokh- Siar 6 yrs old who sang the Star Spangled Banner accompanied on the guitar by her uncle Dylan. There was not a dry eye in the audience after their heart felt performance. After singing she led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

It sure was fun to see everyone out and catch up; the new lovebirds Alexa and Shelton were out with their son and brought Ellyn and Grant along. Neighbors Clarissa, Robert and Samantha Glicksman tagged along. The boys told me they were eager for swimming later on and sampled some white snow cones in the meantime.

Grant Mogford confessed his newfound love of playing Legos with his grandson and explained how much more fun it is to be a grandpa when you can just hand the kids back when you get tired!

Our newly anointed Master Chef Kip Theno brought in a professional Chef from La Crosse, WI to help out. Jake McHenry cooked up some delicious burgers and hot dogs with some assistance from Captain Hoyne and Marcelo Povolo.

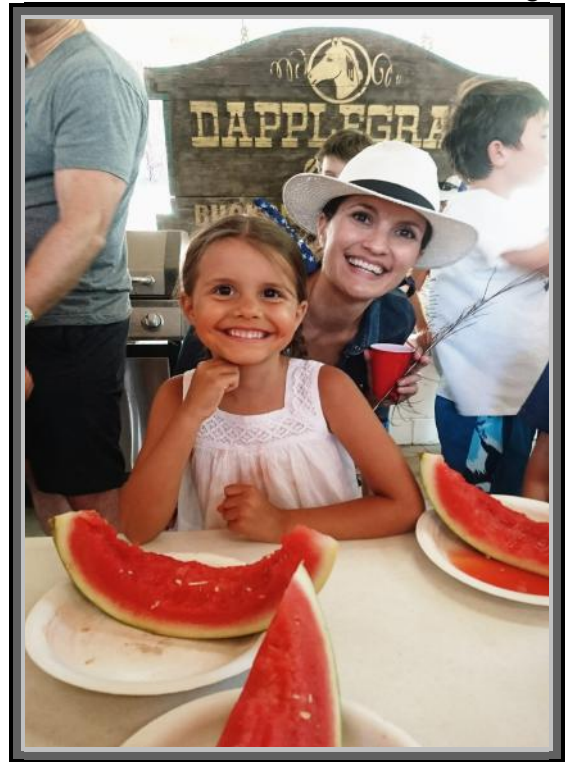

They must have done something right as Emily Power exclaimed "Forth of July food makes me really happy"!!

This year's Pie contest was fierce! The pies were as varied as plentiful and disappeared in a flurry. The winner of the Most Unique was one of our newcomers Meghan Patterson, who treated us to her yummy Frozen Strawberry Lemonade Pie. Most Patriotic was won by the Bandy Family with their scrumptious cherry pie. Most Savory was won by Monica Povolo. It disappeared so fast yours truly didn't even get a taste hence I have no idea what it was. Apparently really delicious!! Other yummy treats were being served up in the kitchen by Brad Fine, Paul Pham, Greg Becker and another newbie on Buckskin; Jon Carlson.

The watermelon eating contest by age divisions was highly entertaining to watch with each participant exhibiting a different style and technique.

Everyone sure seemed to enjoy themselves! Miss Harper Theno who competed in the 6 and under division decided to save some of the watermelon juice on her white dress for later to her mom's delight!

Winners in the Watermelon contest:

6 and under: Isabelle Beck
 7 -9 yr olds: Evan Kelley
 10 - 12 yr olds: Charlotte Gallien
 13 - 15 yr olds: Dashel Bastedo
 16 up: 3 way tie Tom Hoyne, Will Mathes and Hunter Poulin

Everyone was of course really looking forward to the Cherry Pit Spitting contest! Dave Johnston arrived with intentions of keeping the shiny trophy for another year but was outspit by Jeff Forman. Last up, Captain Hoyne surprised us all with his phenomenal spit that sealed the deal in the men's division by 1 ½ feet pass Forman's pit.

Marie Gallien got the women's division started by loudly announcing she just lost her cherry. Being that she's the mother of two, there was some confusion on the field. Meghan Patterson showed her pro spitting skills by launching her pit an impressive 8.72 meters. (Distances were all carefully measured and reported by Tom Hoyne).

Kid's divisions were just as competitive! Caroline Becker miraculously managed to hit Tom Hoyne right in the ear with her pit, which was quite an impressive feat in itself considering Tom Hoyne was not exactly standing still the entire time he was measuring.

Winners in the Kid's Cherry Pit Spitting:

6 and under: Connor Patterson – 5 feet

7 – 9 yr olds: Linkoln Beck – 9 feet

10 – 12 yr olds: Jack Bandy – 11 feet

13 – 15 yr olds: Colton Fine – 427 cm

Cindy Chew announced all the winners in the Mail Box decoration contest. There were lots of participants and lots of winners... Great job everyone!

There were so many fun things happening this day; the water balloon toss, the watermelon bust, all the good food... but most of all it was such a blessing to see the neighborhood come together and create another spectacular Fourth of July in the Lanes. Thank you to everyone who made donations and volunteered in some way. Most of all thank you to Jenny Litchfield who made it all happen!

Welcome to Kim and Brian Little along with their kiddos Emilee 5 $\frac{1}{2}$, Caroline 3 yrs old and Matthew 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ months old! They just moved into 82 Dapplegray.

We welcomed the Carlson's in July at 38 Buckskin; Jon, Kavi 11 and Lio 7 yrs old.

Mom TK had to work that day...

A belated welcome to the Meisterheim family; Jeff & Chrissy along with Loukas 6 yrs old and Effie 4 yrs old who moved into 71 Dapplegray!

Back in April we welcomed Michelle Academia and Zahid Ali who moved in with their kids Noel 14 and Noah 12 yrs old to 18 Buckskin

PETS IN THE LANES...

Cluck cluck...we are the newest members of the Farrokh-Siar family. Brooklyn, Layla, and Skylar brought us home on Memorial Day weekend to 84 Dapplegray. I am the leader of the pack....my name is Brooklyn Jr. and my sister-chicks are Valentine, Rose, and Nugget. Get it....Chicken Nugget?! ha ha...those girls have such a good sense of humor.

Brooklyn with her chicken, Brooklyn Jr. (leader of the brood)

We like to spend our days playing in the yard. They give us plenty of snuggles - we are so loved. We play games with them like hide and seek under the picnic table and tag as they chase us around the grass. The girls scream with delight as they try to scoop us up.

Layla with her chicken, Rose

We love to watch the horses go by, practice flying, and eating the bugs off the grass and then we can poop anywhere we like.

Skylar with her chicken, Valentine

This neighborhood is amazing! At night, we used to sleep in a warm bathroom with a nice heat lamp, but now that we have feathers we are getting ready to move into our new coop. That is whenever the grown-ups in the house figure out how to build it.

and then there's Nugget....the family chicken, in case one turns out to be a rooster

I think Rose and I are Easter Eggers and I'm excited to start laying colorful eggs soon. I'm not sure what my sisters Valentine and Nugget are yet, maybe they will lay colorful eggs too. If not, I'm sure that will solidify my space as favorite and head chicken. Being the head of our brood is a lot of hard work, but I love it! I have to make sure that my sisters are always following the rules and that they stay together in the yard. We can't wait to meet the other chicks in the neighborhood!

DID YOU KNOW?

Before the invention of erasers, breadcrumbs were used to erase mistakes. Not until 1770 when Edward Nairne, an English engineer picked up a piece of rubber instead of breadcrumbs did he discover that rubber can erase pencil markings!
